ACTION REQUESTED OF B/E:

The Board is requested to approve and authorize execution of the Settlement Agreement and Release for the action brought by Jasmin Rowlett, Plaintiff against the Baltimore Police Department (BPD).

AMOUNT OF MONEY AND SOURCE:

$77,000.00 - 1001-000000-2041-716700-603070

BACKGROUND/EXPLANATION:

The Plaintiff alleges she was sexually harassed by supervisors and co-workers within the BPD. Plaintiff claims that these individuals spread false rumors of her sexual promiscuity with multiple subordinate officers, including allegations of a sexual relationship with another Officer. Plaintiff says that supervisors asked co-workers if they had engaged in sexual acts with Plaintiff. Plaintiff also claims that her direct supervisor made unwanted sexual advances, physically pressed his body against her, and sent her text messages with sexually suggestive questions. Lastly, Plaintiff claims that other supervisors showed favoritism to white officers and male officers. On October 2, 2019, Plaintiff filed the current lawsuit alleging violations of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. § 2000 et seq. (“Title VII”) and the Civil Rights Act of 1866, Section 1981 (a) (“Section 1981”) for the alleged unlawful harassment, discrimination based on race (African American), sex (female), sexual harassment, and retaliation she faced.

In order to economically resolve this complex case, which will involve experts, fees and expenses, and voluminous discovery, and to avoid the expense, time, and uncertainties of further protracted litigation, the parties have agreed to offer Plaintiff payment of $77,000.00, for complete settlement of the case, including attorney’s fees and costs. In return, the Plaintiff has agreed to dismiss and release all claims against the BPD, its employees, agents and representatives.

The MOCJ’s plan will leverage its relationships with criminal justice experts and community members to identify the evidence-based and community-driven solutions to address the root causes of violent crime in Baltimore City.

In addition to building systems and capacity to interrupt violence, the MOCJ’s strategy integrates prevention programs that build strong community capacity in neighborhoods most impacted by violence. Central to this effort will be collaboration with other City agencies and external partners who provide resources and critical supports.
Mayor’s Office of Criminal Justice – cont’d

With the support of a wide array of public and private partners, the MOCJ plans to solicit donations to support this strategy throughout the current fiscal year. A potential donor list will be comprised of individuals and corporate entities that contribute to the economic, social, and cultural vitality of Baltimore City, in addition to national funders with interest in violence prevention efforts. Most of the individual and corporate entities fitting this description are not controlled donors. However, those potential donors who are controlled donors, with respect to the City Council or the Board of Estimates, will not be targeted or singled out in any way and will be solicited, if at all, in the same manner as other prospective donors.

Baltimore City Code, Article 8, §6-26 prohibits solicitation or facilitating the solicitation of a gift. An exception was enacted in 2005, to permit certain solicitations that are for the benefit of an official governmental program or activity, or a City-endorsed charitable function or activity. Ethics regulation 96.26B sets out the standards for approval, which includes the requirement that the program, function, or activity to benefit from the proposed solicitation must be endorsed by the Board of Estimates or its designee.
