Healing City Baltimore has been designed to support a healing-centered, trauma-informed approach throughout our communities. From trauma-responsive policy, care and resources, to community-building events and engagement initiatives, Healing City Baltimore is uniting as a city-wide community, healing together, breaking down barriers, and working in solidarity to build a better Baltimore.

Funds would be solicited to support Healing City Baltimore in three areas:
Office of the City Council – cont’d

- Healing City Summit in February 2021 ($25,000.00)
- The Baltimore Neighbors Network, a project of Healing City Baltimore ($75,000.00)
- One staff position for Healing City Baltimore ($91,000.00)

HEALING CITY SUMMIT—FEBRUARY 2021

Healing City Baltimore anticipates the only participants that will be paid will be youth participants.

THE BALTIMORE NEIGHBORS NETWORK

The Baltimore Neighbors Network (BNN) provides a virtual community of volunteers to help build hope and social solidarity. It will also provide clinical assistance for those who need it most, as identified and elevated through a network of volunteer neighbors and organizations. Seniors and other vulnerable people are a vital peer-to-peer component of this model. The goal of the network is to respond to rising psychosocial and behavioral health needs in Baltimore City as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic. A network of volunteers is utilizing phone contact with supportive Baltimoreans and trained clinicians. This work seeks to reach approximately 85,000 individuals.
Office of the City Council - cont’d

Healing City Baltimore plans to raise $75,000 to support the ongoing work of BNN. These funds will pay for the technology infrastructure that is needed to run the effort, mail merging of phone numbers to volunteers, technology for making the phone calls out to neighbors, and the tech support needed to run the systems, as well as for a project manager and a volunteer coordinator. These funds may also be used to recruit new volunteers.

$4,500,001.00 - Purchase Price

BACKGROUND/EXPLANATION:

Westside Partners LLC will purchase the above-listed properties for $4,500,001.00, to be paid in cash at settlement.

On March 11, 2019, the BDC released two Requests for Proposals (RFP) for City-owned properties bounded by Howard Street, Lexington Street, Park Avenue, and Fayette Street. An RFP was issued for each half of the block bisected by Marion Street (the Properties). The intent of the RFPs was to promote the continued revitalization of the Westside of Downtown Baltimore through the redevelopment of the Properties. The BDC received six responsive proposals and selected Westside Partners LLC to acquire and redevelop the Properties. The Developer is planning a large-scale, mixed-use rehabilitation of some of the existing structures with a significant new construction component. The concept includes market-rate rental housing, retail, office, co-working, artist live/work-space, an entertainment venue, and a hotel.

The Properties were appraised on July 24, 2019, for $3,960,000.00, by Jones Realty Advisors, LLC. The Properties are being sold at or above the appraised value.

The BDC respectfully requests that the Board waive its policy on requiring an appraisal that is less than one year old.

MBE/WBE PARTICIPATION:

The Developer has signed a Commitment to Comply with Article 5, Subtitle 28 of the Minority and Women’s Business Enterprise Program of the City of Baltimore.

Department of Housing and Community Development - Memorandum of Understanding

ACTION REQUESTED OF B/E:

The Board is requested to approve and authorize execution of the Memorandum of Understanding with the Housing Authority of Baltimore City (HABC). The period of the Memorandum of Understanding is effective upon Board approval through September 30, 2025.

BACKGROUND/EXPLANATION:

On November 1, 2017, the Department and HABC were co-applicants to the Department of Housing and Urban Development for a $30,000,000.00 Choice Neighborhoods grant for the Perkins-Somerset-Oldtown Choice Neighborhood Initiative. The proposed transformation would redevelop 629 units of public housing at the Perkins Homes and former Somerset Homes site as well as new educational facilities and community facilities, recreational center, open space, commercial and retail, and mixed-income housing. The HABC was the applicant, and the Department was the co-applicant.

On November 8, 2017, the Board approved the Choice Neighborhoods application. On July 6, 2018, the Department of Housing and Urban Development notified HABC and the Department that they were recipients of a $30,000,000.00 Choice Neighborhoods Grant Award. On August 29, 2018, the Board approved the Grant Agreement with the Department of Housing and Urban Development.
DHCD - cont’d

The grant award budget includes funds to support neighborhood revitalization, and the Department has hired a Neighborhood Project Coordinator to prepare and assist in implementing these projects. The Department of Housing and Urban Development Grant Agreement makes up to $401,000.00 from the Choice Neighborhood Initiative grant funds over a five-year period for the Neighborhood Project Coordinator’s implementation.

The Department now requests the Board to approve a Memorandum of Understanding that enables the Department to invoice HABC for the portion of the Neighborhood Project Coordinator’s salary being paid for by the Choice Neighborhood Initiative grant funds and the process for reimbursing the Department under the Memorandum of Understanding with funds derived from the Choice Neighborhood Initiative grant funds.

Mayor’s Office – Second Renewal of FY 2019 Grant Agreement

ACTION REQUESTED OF B/E:

The Board is requested to approve and authorize the Second Renewal of the Fiscal Year 2019 Grant Agreement with Baltimore Sister Cities, Incorporated (BSCI). This second renewal is effective July 1, 2020 through June 30, 2021, with the option for two additional one-year periods.

AMOUNT OF MONEY AND SOURCE:

$10,000.00 - 1001-000000-1250-775200-603050

BACKGROUND/EXPLANATION:

On September 12, 2018, the Board approved the Grant Agreement in the amount of $14,385.97 for the period July 1, 2018 through June 30, 2019, with the option to renew for four additional one-year periods. The renewals would provide up to $10,000.00 in annual operating support to the BSCI.

On March 18, 2020, the Board approved the first one-year renewal through June 30, 2020. This second renewal is effective July 1, 2020 through June 30, 2021, with the option for two additional one-year periods. A portion of funds ($5,000.00) allocated for FY’21 may be advanced immediately. This advance and the balance of FY’21 funds will be disbursed based on invoices documenting approved expenses.

The BSCI was incorporated in December 2015 to establish, foster, and administer “Sister City” relationships between Baltimore and international cities in accordance with the policies of Sister Cities International (SCI) and the Mayor’s Office; to establish committees charged with the day-to-day management of individual Sister City relationships, and to appoint individuals to be members of the committees.

Collectively, these activities represent the program of the BSCI that will be supported with the grant. The BSCI is the successor to Baltimore Sister City Committees (BSCC), a program through which volunteers promoted mutual economic development, educational, cultural, health, environmental, and other exchanges between Baltimore and international Sister Cities in the SCI network, starting in 1974 during the administration of Mayor William Donald Schaefer.

This second renewal is being requested after the end of the prior extension term because of changes in the BSCI’s leadership, an all-volunteer organization, and administrative and budget challenges due to COVID-19.

The Board further approved the examiner expense payments by expenditure authorization.
President: “Madam Comptroller and Mayor Young, I would figure I would come to both of you for comments today. Madam Comptroller.”

Comptroller: “Yes, I have a couple of comments. I would like to – I would just like to say that it has been my pleasure to work for the citizens of Baltimore. I feel incredibly blessed to have served this City for 25 years. To date, I am the City’s longest-serving African-American Comptroller. The opportunity to serve was an obligation that I took seriously, and being Comptroller has been very rewarding for me. Baltimore is one of America’s greatest cities. This City has persevered even though, as the years went by, we had to do more with less resources. For all of the City employees who worked so diligently to assisting this Board in its duties, thank you for bringing your positive attitude and expertise to each meeting while tackling sometimes difficult situations. Mayor Young, Council President Scott, the Baltimore City Council, and to everyone with whom I have had the pleasure of either working with or working for, while serving on this Board, I truly thank you. Most of all, I thank you to the citizens of Baltimore, who had enough confidence in my abilities to elect me for six terms. I depart feeling confident that the determination and integrity of the very important work that the newly-elected officials and each of you committed to, on behalf of the City of Baltimore, will continue and remain persistent through these trying times. Thank you and farewell.”

President: “Thank you, Madam Comptroller. Um, Mr. Mayor, would you like to make comment today?”

Mayor: “Well, I just wanted to thank the Citizens of Baltimore. It’s been a great ride, and um, I enjoyed working with everybody, and I wish everybody the best.”

President: “Thank you, thank you, Mr. Mayor. Before I have uh things I want to say both to Mayor Young and Comptroller Pratt, but before I get to that, I think that’s going to be the last and most important thing that I say today. But, I want to talk about something we approved today, and that’s the creation of the position of the City Administrator, a position voted for, uh, overwhelming by Baltimoreans during our last election. We’ve heard me talk about this a lot, but this position is going to help us revolutionize and modernize our Baltimore City government. This position is not a City Manager but a Chief Administrative Officer, a best practice of local government both across our region and across the country who will focus on improving performance in City Agencies; ensuring accurate information about City services publicly available; and increasing response and responsiveness to our resident’s needs. As always, transparency and accountability are going to be my focus as a Civil Servant, and I truly believe that this position will be an effective tool in the governance of our City. And I am excited about the momentous move toward professionalizing our City government and making our City a better place for all that live and work here and play here. But I also want to be very clear, again that this position does not take away power from the Office of Mayor. Ultimately, I, as the next Mayor of Baltimore City, will be the person responsible, but this person will help me each and every day by making sure we’re operating our City in a top, uh in its top form in a 21st century way. But and before we close I-- I want to also recognize the two honorable leaders on their last Board of Estimates meeting that I’ve had the pleasure and honor of working with, uh since I’ve been on the City Council and even before that as a staff person. Um, Madam Comptroller, as you said early, for 25 years uh you have served the people of Baltimore in this role. Uh, meaning for me you are the only Comptroller that I have ever, I can’t remember anyone before you, and you’ve made history as now, as you just said, serving as the second African American to serve in this position and the only the second woman and the longest-serving African American to be in this position. You have worked tirelessly and selflessly for the citizens of Baltimore. We appreciate your service. I personally appreciate all the times when I have had, in my time as President and otherwise, I’ve had to call and seek advice and just be able to bounce things off of you when things weren’t feeling the right way or looking the right way. I know you’re going to enjoy, uh, your retirement, and you are definitely deserving of it. We want to let you know that we hope you enjoy it, but your spirit will be missed, and we want to thank you for all that you’ve done for the citizens of Baltimore. And Mayor Young, this is also the last meeting for Mayor Young, who has sat on and presided over this Board for over ten years. We know when you think about a public service and people who care and lead with their heart, Mayor Young is someone whose picture pops up in the dictionary when you think about that. And his love for our City is unwavering, and I want to thank him for his service. I also appreciate all the help and advice that you have given me along the way. Even from those times as a staffer when you -- we were up in your City Council Office, and I was sitting on the couch, and we were talking about issues that happening on the streets or with the Police Department. Uh those times and the things that that I learned from those experiences of stuff that you can’t get with any degree, and you can’t get other than actually having those experiences and people who are in positions that are willing to help you grow. And so just know that my success is partly because of the things that you, you guys have helped me to learn and understand as I have basically grew up in City Hall. Mayor Young, I also in particular want you to know because this is something I’ve been thinking about over the last few days is, who’s going to bring in all the baked goods to City Hall? You’re always going to be welcome to come back. If you want to bring some pudding, some pie, you know I will always be there to be the taste tester for you because you know everyone on the second floor and the fourth and the fifth floor are going to be thinking about, Wow, there’s going to be no Mayor Young here to make sure that everyone gets nice tasty treats, and we all know that your baking skills are known throughout the City of Baltimore. But in all seriousness, I hope both of you enjoy the next phase of your life. Uh want to make sure, Mayor Young, I know that you’re going to enjoy the grandbabies ah, very much so, but just know that you-- you-- guys will be missed, and on behalf of the citizens of Baltimore, I want to thank you both for your service to our great City, that you have done for many, many, many years. Any other members of the Board before I close? Um, Madam Solicitor?”
Ms. Moore, Acting City Solicitor: “Yes, I just-- just want to join in the things you’ve extended to Madam Comptroller and Mayor Young. Um, Madam Comptroller, as I said before, we got started today, we’ve known each other for a long time. Uh, we-- we had some long hard walks around the track at Gilman, and once I got to City Hall, we had some hard treks around City Hall. Um, I admire you. I respect you. I thank you for all that you taught me in my job. Um, and I will miss you. But I’ll see you in an hour or so when we do some bid openings, but congratulations to you.”

Comptroller: “Okay, thank you.”

Ms. Moore, Acting City Solicitor: “You are very welcome. Mayor Young, I’ve known you a long time. I recall talking to you on the phone some years ago, when I said to you then, ‘You will be Mayor someday, you will be Mayor.’ And here you are, um, there is no Mayor, I don’t think, in this country who has had to weather the exit of his predecessor. Um, there is no Mayor who has had to experience coming to work one morning, um, when government officials got there first. There is no Mayor who has had to weather ransomware and then COVID and you rose to the occasion. I will always believe that you saved many, many, lives in this City because of your action and stepping up to the plate to make very hard decisions regarding this pandemic. And I know Mayor-Elect Scott and Madam Comptroller Pratt joined you in those efforts. Um, I just appreciate everything that you’ve done in this office, in this leadership. You will be sorely missed, not just the baked goods but, I saw you today on Facebook, singing and making pork chops. I don’t think those pork chops made it to City Hall. But if you do it again, please bring us some because we’ll be here waiting for you. Love you dearly, congratulations.”

President: “Mr. Director.”

Mr. Garbark, Acting Director, Department of Public Works: “Thank you, Mr. President. I also want to echo all the comments that have been said. Um, if we sort of reflect on the last four years, it has been quite a, quite a change. It’s been quite a few four years we have weathered. As Ms. Moore said, we’ve weathered just about anything and everything that has been thrown at this City and I really, really want to thank Comptroller Pratt, who when I came here as a wide-eyed, uh, you know assistant under, I think was three administrations ago and I learned from you and your office about the Board and the value of the Board, the respect and the importance of the Board, and its process. I take that very humbly. I take that to heart. I thank you for that. And Mayor Young, you just shown a tremendous amount of quiet determination and basically stepping up to handle just about anything and everything that’s been thrown at this City, and I echo um the Solicitor Moore’s comments that I truly believe you saved lives. And um, we-- you will be missed, and I appreciate everything you’ve done and Mr. President, I look forward to you becoming the Mayor of this City. I thank you for your leadership you’ve shown on this Board as well as in the Council, and I think um the City is heading in the right direction, and um I think, I think, Baltimore is as ever going to be and remain the greatest City in America.”

Comptroller: “That’s true.”

President: “Thank you. Thank you all.”
President: “As there is no more business before the Board, we will recess until bid opening at 12 noon. The Board will be in recess next week of December 09th. We will reconvene on December 16th. Thank you.”

Comptroller: “Thank you.”

Comptroller: “Good afternoon. The Board of Estimates is now in session for the receiving and opening of bids. As part of the overall effort to limit transmission of the COVID-19 virus, the Board of Estimates is conducting bid openings virtually. Members of the public can call in to bid openings live by calling 443-984-1696 and entering access code 0817325. The Board of Estimates meetings are broadcast live on CHARM-TV, Channel 25 on Comcast cable in Baltimore City. Meetings are also streamed on the Internet at www.charmtvbalifornia.com/watch-live. The Board of Estimates will continue to conduct bid openings virtually while the state of emergency declared by the Mayor of Baltimore and the Governor of Maryland remains in effect. There are no addenda, and there are no bids scheduled to be received and opened for today. Thank you. And I would just also like to say that this is my last noonday Board meeting of opening and receiving of bids, and I just want to thank Ms. Moore and Mr. Garbark for all of your help assisting the Office of the Comptroller, and I know that, um, I feel confident that in my absence that this Board will continue to operate effectively and efficiently and I just want to thank you, both of you, for all your help in assisting with this very important effort for the City and citizens of Baltimore. Thank you.”

Ms. Moore, Acting City Solicitor: “Thank you. Um, so, um, I think I’ve got a little bit of seniority on you Matt in this role and maybe in life even. So you have to do, yes, so, I’ll speak first. Um, 25 years of amazing service to the City of Baltimore. If this meeting were not virtual, I would imagine this room would be packed with all the different people and agencies and vendors and contractors and agency staff who you have supported through your 25 years, that would be standing room only. People would be spilling out into the hallways. We are virtual, so we don’t have that, and I am not even sure who’s who’s watching, but we’ve been watching you for 25 years. Mayor-elect Scott said this morning, ‘He really can’t remember another Comptroller in his lifetime.’ You are the Comptroller that taught me how to do the job that I am doing, um, and I’ve been doing it just for three years, but I would have been floundering without your guidance and that of your amazing staff. So I want to thank you, um, for all that you’ve done, um. A lot has changed over the years, and we’ve sort of learned together, uh, in this past year. It has brought so many changes and you’ve weathered it all. Um I imagine, um, I thought about it this morning as I was getting ready to come to City Hall. I was like, and we need to give her something. I mean 25 years, and the only thing I could think to give you that you don’t have is driving lessons because you are going to have to learn to drive yourself.”

Comptroller: “Again.”

Ms. Moore, Acting City Solicitor: “Yes, and we don’t want to have you come back to the Law Department in another capacity.”

Comptroller: “That’s true.”

Ms. Moore, Acting City Solicitor: “Please accept the thanks of the Law Department, um, and all of us downstairs on the first floor, that have worked and really thank you to all of your staff. You will be very much missed, and I just wish you very, very, very good health and good times.”
Comptroller: “Thank you.”

Mr. Garbark, Acting Director, Department of Public Works: “Madam Comptroller, I echo all the sentiments, and I just want to on behalf of all of the Directors who’ve come before me, you’ve been around for, I think you started, it was Director Balog was still here at that point and um, I just know that the Department of Public Works and the efforts that we’ve done to build the City, improve the City, employ people who live in this City. There’s almost a 90% residency rate in the Department of Public Works of city residents, and you’ve been around through all of this, um, this latest sort of capital program. I just want to thank you and your staff. I mentioned this morning, I came in as a wide-eyed assistant. My role was Board of Estimates and I learned very quickly the importance of the Board, the um integrity of you and your staff hold in terms of Board process, in terms of the public process, and it has been a, um, an amazing learning experience for me, and just this has been a tough four years for this City, but we’re all here. We’re moving forward, um, we’re giving contracts out and, um, and things seem to be okay. And I want to thank you for your 25 years of service. And I echo everything Solicitor Moore said, Mayor-elect Scott and Mayor Young said earlier. Thank you for all of your service.”

Comptroller: “Sure, I just want to say, um, for, um, Dana that I just want to thank you and the Law Department for always assisting and helping me understand the contracts and giving me all the briefings that made it much easier for me to make a decision when it came to vote for or against a certain item and Matt please accept my phone calls because you know how it is when citizens stop me on the street and say, ‘I have an issue’ and um, I give it directly to you and resolve it, and the citizens are very appreciative of getting those, uh, items for whatever it be, whether it’s tax, water, whatever it is. And I want to thank you for your diligence in in getting those things done for the citizens of Baltimore. Ok, I may be watching you all on the 16th. Thank you.”
